

The Opportunity

Are you committed to helping others?

Safe & Sound Somerset is looking for a creative, energetic, and passionate Financial Empowerment and Housing Center Advocate to join our dynamic trauma-informed organization.

What Your Day will Look Like

You will deliver a variety of services to survivors engaged in the Financial Empowerment and Housing Center including providing trauma informed case management, education, and advocacy. Your goal will be to help survivors heal from domestic abuse and/or sexual assault through holistic and compassionate client centered programming.

What You Bring to this Role

First and foremost, you'll bring a level of enthusiasm towards helping survivors. You'll use your strong communication skills, your stellar organizational skills, and your high level of emotional intelligence to meet the survivors where they are and support their healing process. A minimum of 3 years' experience in case management, crisis intervention or advocacy is required. DV/DV 60 hour training certificate a plus.

What We Offer

We believe in continuous learning and will provide you with professional development workshops. You will be surrounded by a committed, multi-disciplinary team environment. We provide a comprehensive medical and benefits package, paid time off/sick time, a 401K plan and flexible work schedules in a hybrid work environment or eligible positions (remote/off-site). We do require you have access to confidential remote office space and high-speed internet.

Safe + Sound Somerset strongly values diversity for the benefit of our team, our work, and our collective movement to end violence. We are proud to be an Equal Opportunity Employer and strongly encourages applicants from racially or ethnically diverse communities, LGBTQ+ communities, individuals with disabilities, and survivors to apply.
